Death Cafe

Thursday 11th May 2023

6pm - 8pm

Nottinghamshire Hospice, 384 Woodborough Road, Nottingham, NG3 4JF

Take part in an evening of conversation about death, dying and funerals. You'll find a friendly, supportive environment to talk about the many aspects of death and dying we don't normally have the opportunity to discuss with others.

Members of the Nottinghamshire Hospice team will be on hand at the event, including Kate Martin - Palliative Care Practice Lead and Debbie Hastings, Bereavement Support Services Manager. They'll also be joined by Soul Midwife, Julie Barnes.
