WHICH ICP OBJECTIVES DOES THIS RELATE TO (SELECT ALL THAT ARE RELEVANT)

- To give every child the best start in life.
 To promote and encourage healthy choices.
 To support our population to age well.
 To maximise opportunities to develop our built environment into healthy places.
 To tackle physical inactivity.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY (OVERVIEW):

This stakeholder briefing paper provides an overview of the Public Health recommissioning plan for an Integrated Sexual Health Service (ISHS) for Nottingham and Nottinghamshire to be delivered by March 2024. It outlines early themes for development of a new service model and identifies opportunities for partners in Nottingham City and Nottinghamshire County to engage and shape this service development.

The paper provides an overview of:

- The aims, objectives, and milestones of the recommissioning programme
- The elements of an ISHS that expected to be retained
- Priority areas for further development in the future integrated sexual health service model
- The proposed vision, guiding principles and ambitions for sexual health

There is further information in the appendices about who is responsible for commissioning what aspects of sexual health across the health system, the current service model, and the key elements of an Integrated Sexual Health Service.

RECOMMENDATION:

- To endorse.
 To approve.
 To receive the recommendation (see details below)
 To discuss.

The PBP Forum is recommended to:

- Note the ISHS recommissioning objectives, delivery timescales, proposed vision and principles, and priority areas for service model development.
- Feedback any considerations, opportunities, or potential impacts the sexual health recommissioning programme may have for your population, organisation, or locality.
- Identify key contacts best placed to contribute to the further development of the ISHS service model for your locality by attending a workshop in November or having a one-to-one conversation with Public Health.
